

OSHA Worker Right-To-Know Training

Northeast State Transit System

HRP Associates, Inc. prepared and implemented an OSHA Worker Right-To-Know training program for employees stationed in three major cities of this state. The training program, which was designed to meet the regulatory requirements of 29 CFR 1910.1200, covered the following elements:

- Purpose of the Regulation
- Key Definitions
- Responsibilities of the state's transit system
- Hazardous Chemicals Lists
- Material Safety Data Sheets
- Warning Labels
- Non-Routine Tasks
- Contractor Work
- Chemical Exposure Protection
- General First Air Principles

HRP conducted a total of four (4) Worker Right-To-Know training seminars to train all covered state transit employees.
